4,000 Pupils Begin New School Year in Freeport District

Archer Third Graders Transferred to Old Seaman Ave. Building

The 1950-51 school year opened in Freeport yesterday with a registration of approximately 4,000 students in the high and five elementary schools.

Five third-grade classes of the Archer st. school have been transferred to the old Seaman ave. school building to relieve the congestion in the former structure. About 150 pupils, who are to be transported by bus, are involved in the shift. As a result all Archer st. classes will be kept on full time.

The Seaman ave. building has been repainted throughout and all the furniture has been refinished. Superintendent of Buildings Walter C. Hawkins reported.

Dr. John W. Dodd, superintendent of schools announced this week that children who will be five years old on or before Feb. 1, may be enrolled in the kindergartens of the five elementary schools of the district. The State law fixes Dec. 1, as the date but Dr. Dodd has been granted a little leeway.

The playgrounds of the Archer st. school, Grove st., and High School have been resurfaced with asphalt. Depressions in the paving of the Archer st. playground in which surface water collected, caused complaints to be made by the South-west and Atlantic-South Civic Associations, and the Board of Education.

Freeport Junior Kiwanis Nine Plays for State Title This Saturday

The Freeport Kiwanis Club junior baseball team, the Barons, is within one game of repeating its phenomenal record of 1949 when it won the New York State championship without losing a league game. It reached the state finals Saturday, when it defeated Staten Island by a score of 4 to 3, at Queens Park, Woodside.

To win the honor of meeting the best team from up-State at Ebbets Field Saturday for the state title.

Staten Island had a 3 to 0 lead, going into the sixth inning as the locals had been unable to do anything with pitcher Art Lockhart's delivery. Then the Barons again demonstrated their ability to come through in a pinch. Tom King, first up in the sixth, got a life on an error by the opposing second baseman. Dick Schaap sacrificed him to second, going out catcher to first base. Phil Roberts, leading batter, responded with a double that sent King home. Bruce Robins popped to second, but Pitcher Trisch added his own by doubling and sending Roberts home, then Moe Muhlbauer, who had just entered the game as an outfielder, singled and Trisch raced home with the tying run.

Gus Sjolholm carried the winning run around in the seventh. He led off with a double, took second as pitcher Bob Fitzgerald, who had replaced Lockhart, fanned Perez, but catcher Ned Roach dropped the ball and had to throw the batter out at first, permitting Sjolholm to reach third from where he counted after John Papacostas had struck out.

When the opposing first sacker in his anxiety to nail Sjolholm going home fumbled King's grounder and the runner scored.

After going through the Nassau County season without a loss in the league games, the Freeporters took five games eliminating other teams in climbing to the top in the south-

Four Civic Associations Plan September Meetings

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Kelly, librarian of the Freeport Memorial Library, will speak at the monthly meeting of the Atlantic-South Civic Association to be held tonight in the South Shore Yacht Club.

The Southwest Civic Association will resume its meetings Monday night after the summer recess, in the Freeport Exempt Firemen's Association Hall, Brooklyn and North Long Beach ave. Everett C. Furman, chairman of the Freeport Park Commission, will discuss plans for the development of the Milburn Pond Park and other activities of the commission.

Lawrence McKeon, Democratic candidate for Congress, has accepted an invitation to address the first fall meeting of the Northwest Civic Association to be held Monday night in the cafeteria of the Seaman ave. school, President Van-Bear Brown, announced today.

Mr. Brown said it was hoped Congressman Leonard W. Hall, who is the Republican candidate to succeed himself, would accept an invitation to speak at the October meeting. He said he believed the candidates of both parties would welcome an opportunity to mingle with and speak to the voters of their congressional district concerning matters of national and international importance.

President Brown added that the subject of thorough commercial traffic on residential streets would be thoroughly discussed.

The Northwest Civic Association will hold its monthly meeting on Friday night, Sept. 14, in the home of Harry J. Berkowitz, 215 North Ocean ave.

Polio Fund Started In Memory of Henry A. Strecker

Kenny Foundation Head For Nassau Announces Plan to Aid Freeporters

Establishment of a Freeport Strecker Memorial Fund was announced today by Joseph C. Zavatt, general chairman of the Nassau County Unit, Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation.

"This Fund," said Mr. Zavatt, "is established in memory of our indefatigable and lovable Freeport Chairman Henry A. Strecker, Jr., who died from a heart strain and pneumonia following a bad fall which tore the ligaments from his leg, resulting in a cast and crutches—the very thing he worked to prevent among Nassau County polio victims, through care and treatment at the Sister Kenny Institute in Jersey City. If Mr. Strecker had not insisted on carrying on his community obligations, his accident, he might still be alive today."

The setting up of this Fund meets with the grateful approval of Mrs. Strecker, W. Sergeant Nixon, cashier of the Freeport Bank, who also is our assistant County Treasurer. Mr. Nixon said the fund, with his bank as the depository for all contributions. Checks or money orders should be made out to the Strecker Memorial Fund and mailed to Mr. Nixon, or cash contributions may be made at his office in the bank.

Mr. Nixon said "This Fund will be used for the care and Kenny treatment of acute and convalescent polio patients, both children and adults, from the Freeport area, at the Sister Kenny Institute in the Jersey City Medical Center."

It sincerely hopes that friends of Mr. Strecker whose services to the community were given unstintingly, and other citizens of Freeport, will respond generously to this Memorial Appeal.

Merrick Boys Finish First In Stadium Soap Box Derby

Bill Jack and George Muhlbauer, of Merrick, won the annual Labor Day soapbox derby sponsored by William Clinton Story Post, A. L., and Jake Kedenburg, promoter of the midget and stock car races, at the Municipal Stadium Monday afternoon.

Muhlbauer pushed Jack around the track in 53.2 seconds, the fastest time of the afternoon.

Nelson and Arthur Shreiber, also of Merrick, finished second, followed by Robert Nelson and John Castle of Freeport, and John Kearns and Daniel Wilson also of Freeport. There were six preliminary heats, and the first two to finish qualified for the final.

The youngest entry was Regina Hamard, 6, of Merrick, who was pushed around the track by her brother Ted, 8. Because of size, they were given a liberal handicap. However, one midget car driver took the slick-away from Ted, and started pushing. Before the finish, three others had relieved him and little Regina naturally came in first. Andy Furel, a driver, volunteered to act as pusher in the final but resigned at the last moment and simply propelled the vehicle across the infield. Competitors came from as far away as Huntington, Smithtown, Branch, Babylon and West Babylon.

The program was started by a parade of the cars around the track, to enable the judges to select several of the best appearing cars, and the final selection was made on the basis of applause. The contrivance finally selected was a copper sheathed "car" entered by Elliott Riley, of 3 Washburn ave., and Edward McCoy, of 102 North Grove st. Riley was presented a trophy donated by the U. S. Stock Car Club and presented by Harry Tattersall, who also officiated as one of the judges. The others were Edward Allen and Furel, members of the American Racing Drivers Club.

The derby final was held just before the feature midget car race of the afternoon. The winning pair was awarded a trophy put up by the A. B. D. C. and an R. C. A. record player for each driver and pusher. Credit slips for the purchase of substantial amounts of merchandise were given the winning pair in each heat, and there were prizes for the

Annual Faculty Meeting Gets School Year 1950-51 Under Way

The 1950-51 school year got under way Tuesday with the annual faculty meeting held in the Freeport High School auditorium. Leo F. Giblyn, president of the Board of Education, welcomed 20 teachers who have entered the school system and greeted those who have returned for the new year.

Superintendent John W. Dodd presided. He made the usual first of the year announcements and stressed the activities which are to be featured during the year. These include Audio-Visual Education, which is to be introduced with Clarence Genner as director.

"Let's supplement learning by doing with learning by seeing," and make our education more meaningful," Dr. Dodd said. "By using the most modern tools of our profession, we should be better able to prepare our boys and girls for this technological world in which we live."

The superintendent then announced the appointment of Mr. Genner as director, and advised the teachers to get in touch with him when in doubt as to policy. He reported that all Freeport schools are provided with some of the finest pieces of equipment with which to carry on the audio-visual program.

"The value of audio-visual aids to the learning processes which constitute the task of the American schools has been well established," Dr. Dodd continued. "It is recognized that the larger part of all educational experiences are visual, auditory or manipulative and that the ability of an individual to comprehend a new idea is made easier if all three avenues of experience are used. Verbalism or the use of textbooks alone, has not proved the primary oal of every social studies teacher. The motion picture film with its unequalled emotional appeal is the most powerful tool for teaching desirable attitudes.

For the modern social studies student, abstractions must come to life through concrete experiencing. The reality of the past must be seen in its relationship to the present."

"Visualizing the Arts," from Editor, "Hear and See."

"Many hundreds of films on the arts and music unlock a treasure house of world wide culture. Here the power of the film is fully exemplified. Background, for art, art in education, art international, great painters, landscape, art sculpture, architecture, drama, opera, these are some of the subjects which are given superb treatment through this modern medium right in the school room."

The superintendent cited several authorities on the subject as follows:

"Evaluation of Audio-visual Programs" by Lawrence H. Dennis, American Vocational Association; "Audio-visual aids have definite place and values as teaching tools in all phases of the vocational arts. They satisfy the desperate need for making the most of instructional time. Their worth was proved dramatically by the results of the accelerated training courses in fire-arms and machines of war where skillful manipulation" was a prime purpose of learning.

Harris Harvill, Professor of Education, Alabama Teachers College; "For the past fifteen months, this college has been evaluating the extent, and place of emphasis of audio-visual materials and techniques of instruction. We find that they are absolutely indispensable in the field of social studies. Proficiency by students in the interpretation of data presented in visual and graphic form and student skill in synthesizing information for graphic and precise presentation is the

93.7 Regents Mark Set By Freeport H. S. Students

A Regents percentage of 93.7 percent was established by the students of the Freeport High School for 1950, on the basis of 1,270 taking the tests and 1,190 passing. Dr. Dodd, superintendent of schools, announced this week. This compared to 94.11 percent last year and 96.83 in 1948.

The percentage of those who passed in both local and regents was 94, with 6,962 taking the examinations and only 383 failing to achieve success. This was one point below the percentages for the two previous years.

In the elementary schools, 96.44 of the pupils were promoted, a better figure than the 94.80 for 1949 and 96.37 for 1948.

B.H.S. Student Spends First Day as Salesgirl

By BARBARA ALBERT

For the sixteen years of my life I had looked across a retail counter at salesgirls but last Saturday, for the first time, I was to find myself on the other side of the counter. As Baldwin's representative on the Junior Deb Board of Macy's in New York City, I was to work on Saturday in the Junior Deb Section of the store during my senior year.

Miss Adams, our advisor, met the twenty or so Junior Debs from various high schools in the metropolitan area Saturday morning in the store. We soon found that we had much to learn before we actually began to work. We were given "in training" buttons and were then taken to the fourth floor, the floor we were to work on. We were taught how to clock in, how to register sales, how to figure city sales taxes, how to keep stock in good shape and other important facts.

After lunch, how we actually found ourselves working at the various sections of our department. I found myself in the blouse bar while others were assigned to the sweater or hat bar or the dress and coat department. We were all very nervous, but after our first few sales we calmed down. We had passed our first day of work in Macy's and found our first pay checks waiting for us.

Miss Adams also informed us that besides working in the department, we would be taught how to model clothes, for we are to give a fashion show in the store soon and will give fashion shows in our schools later in the year.

It's really fun working and learning in a big store and getting paid for it! It's not only the money we're getting that's so important, but the invaluable experience we're gaining.

SCOUTS PLAN STAMP SHOW

The Boy Scouts of Freeport and the Baldwin Philatelic Club will hold a stamp show on Saturday, Sept. 23rd, from noon until 9 p. m. in the Salvation Army Hall, 75 Church st. For information contact L. Heymann, 676 So. Grove st. Freeport 8-6217.

Children's Theatre To Present 'Americana'

Members of the Children's Theatre Summer Workshop will present "Americana," a fun-packed two hours of entertainment in the auditorium of the Columbus ave. School, Friday night, Sept. 15, for the benefit of the Harry A. Strecker Polio Memorial Fund. The program is replete with snappy vaudeville, singing and dancing, acrobatics and old-fashioned melodrama. The audience will be taken on a tour of the good old U. S. A., starting at Anyman's Town, and visiting Jones Beach, the old South, the Wild West, South of the Border, Broadway from the Florida to the Rockies, and ending with "Stars and Stripes Forever," a military extravaganza of George M. Cohan songs, fast tap dances and twirling.

The sale was designed and executed by Jane Penno, of the Freeport Artists Guild, who also wrote the melodrama, "The Old Homestead." Frederick D. Wood, veteran director, has assisted in the formation and rehearsal of the show in co-operation with Wyneta Fisher and Mildred Mildred, co-directors of the Children's Theatre Project.

Tickets for the "Americana" are now on sale. There will be a ticket table at the dress rehearsal Saturday night and next Wednesday night at the Columbus ave. school.

Rosh Hashonah Services Start Monday Night

The beginning of the Jewish New Year 5711 will be observed by holding Rosh Hashonah services in Temple B'nai Israel Monday night at 8:30 o'clock. David Montefiore, president of the congregation announced today. There will be other services on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings at 8 o'clock. Rabbi Reuben M. Katz and Cantor Harry Altman will be in charge of the conservative services and Cantor Silverman of the orthodox rites.

Marking the end of the High Holidays will be Yom Kippur which will start on Wednesday, Sept. 20, at 8:30 P.M. with the Kol Nidre service. There will be another gathering at 8 o'clock the following morning and then the Yiskor, or memorial service, at 4:30 P.M., concluding the New Year's season.

SEVEN GIRLS GIVE SHOW TO AID POLIO CAMPAIGN

The Polio Fund was endorsed $25.50 by seven Freeport young girls, Mimi Gilligan, Betty Smevik, Greta Friedman, Grace and Nancy Smevik, Patricia Hall and Sally Simonson, who presented a short historical drama entitled, "A Letter to Lincoln," recently, at 211 Porterfield Pl., the garage and driveway serving as stage and orchestra.

Teacher Finds War News Isn't All Confined to Korea

By JOEL HILLMAN

Most of the world is interested in the war news. Only a few people pay attention to the annual war that starts every year early in September. Millions of militant students return to do battle with greatly outnumbered teachers in our grade and high schools. The teachers try to inflict on this conflict? The issue is simple; half of this million of students fight determinedly not to acquire the education. And what is the nature of them daily.

The weapons of both sides vary from the subtle to the crude. In one classroom, the students use indifference; their attitudes belligerently cry, "we defy you to teach us this silly subject." In another classroom, it's an undercurrent of chattering and whispering designed to throw the teacher off stride. The list of weapons is long with each student the prospective inventor of the 8-bomb, whose purpose is to end school forever.

The teachers, to have weapons. First, there is the authoritative stance; in this room you do as I say or else! The "or else" can be a failing mark. Then there is another more subtle approach. This is to the teacher off stride. The list of weapons is long with each student the prospective inventor of the 8-bomb, whose purpose is to end school forever.

And so, it's September, off again to battle, heads high, hearts strong and wonder in mind—what if that S-bomb does go off?

Rev. D. G. Jaxheimer Honored at Reception

Christ Lutherans Bid Pastor - Wife Farewell; Pursue and Resolutions

Members of Christ Lutheran Church and friends of the community joined in a farewell gathering for their pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. David G. Jaxheimer in the church parlors last night.

The Rev. Mr. Jaxheimer resigned his pastorate in June following his unanimous election, at the annual convention of the United Lutheran Synod of New York in Kingston, as Assistant to the President of the Synod.

Taking part in the farewell program were Mayor Robert L. Doores and the Rev. James B. Shaw, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, representing the Freeport Inter-Faith Clergy Council as its president; the Rev. John R. Taylor, pastor of St. John's Church, Merrick, who spoke for the neighboring Lutheran congregations; the Rev. Charles D. Trexler of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Roosevelt, and the Rev. John C. Dries, pastor of Christ Church, Wantagh, who represented "daughter" congregations of Christ Church.

The Rev. C. Leighton King, pastor of the Church of the Prince of Peace in St. Albans and president of the Long Island Conference of the Synod, brought a message on behalf of the Church at large. A set of framed resolutions, adopted by the congregation, was read by Henry C. Kranz, member of the Church Council, and presented to Pastor Jaxheimer. E. Lloyd Tresselt, vice-president of the Church Council, was spokesman for the congregation and presented the Pastor a purse.

Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Florence Hardgrove and Paul Frenzels, and by "The Melodiers" of Manhattan, a Negro quartet under the direction of LeRoy Boyd. The committee on arrangements was headed by Herbert Theis and Henry C. Kranz acted as master of ceremonies. A social time followed the formal program.

The Harry A. Strecker Memorial Plaza

Wherever we have been this past week, folks have stopped us to say . . . "We like the idea of naming the new station plaza in memory of our friends, Harry Strecker" . . . it seems everyone felt only love and respect for this friend who passed away only a few days ago, and all are agreed that to name the proposed new station plaza after him would be a lovely thing for his village to do.

Some day, Harry Strecker's dream of a more beautiful Freeport will be a reality . . . we only hope that those in whose power it is to name this plaza will follow the hopes of all of us and name it in his memory.

Where Do You Stand?

Basically there are but two political philosophies. One sets the citizen above the state—that is what we have had in this country under our representative form of government. The other sets the state above the citizen and results in the oppression that has bedeviled the human race throughout the ages.

Currently, socialism and communism represent the ultimate in the latter philosophy. That is why present-day planners who advocate greater government domination over the individual avoid these names like the plague. They promote government ownership of industry . . . they endorse compulsory medical taxes . . . they tout the country at government expense in support of Federal power "authorities," and constantly harp on the theme that the capabilities of private industry are inadequate. Their program, from start to finish is "socialism."

Regardless of the sensitivities of the disguised socialist, it is of the greatest importance to define his aims. If this country is to abandon the system of government upon which it was founded, let's do it deliberately, not by subterfuge. Up to now, no important politician has openly asked us to choose between democracy and socialism or some other kind of statism, but we are being urged to support candidates for Congress who favor political programs that definitely express much more faith in government control than in the individual character and ability of the average citizen.

If we have definitely come to the conclusion that the individual problems of most people are too much for them, and that the only hope is in a benevolent government, then let us set up a super-government . . . but let us do it with our eyes open.

On the other hand, if we still believe that the only security for any citizen is his individual freedom of opportunity, it is our conviction that the time has come to stand up and declare ourselves. And so we ask, "Where do you stand?"

The Editor's Notebook

(Ed. Note: We are grateful to Rev. C. Newman Hogle, Minister The Freeport Methodist Church for the following:)

The Teacher

By HERBERT HOOVER

The public school teacher cannot live apart. He cannot separate his teaching from his daily walk and conversation. He lives among his pupils during school hours, and among them and their parents all the time. He is peculiarly a public character under the most searching scrutiny of watchful, critical eyes. His life is an open book. His habits are known to all. His office, like those of a minister of religion, demand of him an exceptional standard of conduct. And how rarely does a teacher fall below that standard? How seldom does a teacher figure in a sensational head line? It is truly remarkable that so vast an army of people, approximately eight hundred thousand, so uniformly meets its obligations, so effectively does its job so decently, behaving itself, as to be almost utterly inconspicuous in a sensation-loving world. It implies a wealth of character, of tact, of patience, of quiet competence, to achieve such a record.

Letters to The Editor

Freeport, N. Y.
204 E. Dean Street
September 2, 1950
Dear Mr. Caffrey,
c/o THE LEADER,

Concerning your story in Thursday's LEADER about the future prospects of Baldwin High School's sports, we disagree with one of your statements.

You stated that Ed Ritchie out-pitched Jay Schmidt in the 1-0 encounter won by Schmidt. As you say, Ritchie allowed only one hit while Jay gave up three. However, you have conveniently overlooked the fact that Jay whiffed fifteen in comparison with four for Ed. Of the remaining six Baldwin outs, Jay picked two men off base, Pousson in the first and in the fifth frames. Two batters, all-scholastic sluggers Clayton Snedeker and Johnny Clanton were retired on hard-hit pop flies to the catcher. The other two outs were a ground ball to second by Snedeker and a ground ball to short off Clanton's bat. Both Baldwin aces went hitless and each clipped in with a strike-out. Dangerous Dick Grotz fanned three times and Ritchie, Millette and Freeman went down via the strike machine. Two of the hits off Jay were of the in-field variety. Only one ball was hit out of the infield by Baldwin. Besides the lone hit, Freeport hit three long flies off Ed one a fly to right by Schmidt. Schmidt also scored the one run.

Ritchie also walked four in contrast to three for Jay. How about the first meeting between the two right-ys, Jay gave up one hit, a single by Dick Grotz. Ritchie was smacked for seven hits and had to be relieved by Thomas in the sixth inning. Freeport won 4-0 with McAllister opening the game with a four bagger.

By claiming that Ritchie is better than Schmidt, you are contradicting a fairly expert authority, Gil Hodges (no doubt you've heard of him somewhere). Maybe Biggie Hestler is better than him, who picked Jay over Ritchie and South Side's Paul Parker on Happy Felton's Knot-Hole Gang during July.

Yours truly,
Dick Schnapp
Public Relations Agent for the "Freeport Fireballer" Jay Schmidt
Editor:

Sir:
Congratulations on your fine "Back to School" issue of the LEADER. Your fine words of approval of our public school system will help a great deal to make the return to school an enjoyable experience. I thought, what a contrast, both on the part of both editor and students that going back to school was about one of the most unenjoyable things a youngster could engage in. In recent years this has been the attitude of most editors but rarely that of the boys and girls themselves. Again congratulations on your fine wholesome attitude which seems to be supported by the boys and girls themselves.

Respectfully,
Rev. C. Newman Hogle,
Freeport, L. I.

(Thank you Pastor Hogle. And thank you for the lines from our great ex-president, Herbert Hoover. We are printing it in full. R. E. C.)

Towns Teens

By FRANCES PRATT

Sept. 6, by now that date is familiar to all, for this is the day school starts. The year 1950-51 promises to be a great one for all F. H. S. students. The football team under Coach BILL ASHLEY looks like one of the best, boasting such stars as JERRY SIMANDL, MARSHALL RIVERS, HANK MATTERER, BERK SWEEZEY and BOB GREENE. This year should also see record breaking teams in the other sports especially BASKETBALL and LACROSSE. It would be hard to beat the record of last year's baseball team but I'm sure the boys, paced by star pitcher, JAY SCHMIDT, will try their best to be in 1st place this year.

And this year the cheerleaders under Co-captains CAROL MUNKELT and MITZI PETROVITS will certainly "raise the roof" when they lead the cheers at the sport events. Not to mention the Band under Drum-major CORNELIA PENNEMA.

The G. O. boasts a very impressive slate of officers for the coming year. President, BERK SWEEZEY, vice-presidents GEORGE DRAGONETTI and DAVE PORTER, Secretary CORNELIA PENNEMA, Treasurer WAYNE MARSHALL, and Social Secretary ROSANNE CLEARY. The Fishings Staff and Voyageur Staff are working hard to make the year 1950-51 one of the best. DHO Dance Committee, Masque and Wig, and all the Various other clubs. The Senior Class is already planning its Variety Show and from the rumors around it will be a real bang-up show.

So, all in all, it looks like the year 1950-51 will be TERRIFIC. BEST LUCK TO EVERYONE!! See you next week.

Another Word About Going Back To School

Newsleads are playing "heavy" this week old Bill Shakespeare's "whining school boy with satchel face" and "shining morning" but did you ever hear: "Lord, let me make this rule, to think of life as school, and try my best to stand each test, and do my work, and nothing shirk: Should someone else outshine this dullard head of mine, should I be sad? I will be glad to do my best at Thy behest. Some day the bell will sound . . . Some day my heart will bound as with a shout when school is out, and lessons done, I homeward run."

THE HOME CIRCLE

The Best Purchase.

John Wanamaker, world's merchant prince, companion of Kings and Rulers and Presidents, began his career as an errand boy at $1.25 a week. He became one of the world's largest purchasers of merchandise. But let us ask what did he consider his greatest purchase? . . . Listen to this: "I have of course, made large purchases in my lifetime, involving many millions of dollars, and the buildings and grounds in which we are now meeting represent a value of approximately twenty million dollars. But it was as a boy in the country at eleven years of age, that I made my biggest purchase in a little mission Sunday School I bought from my teacher a small leather Bible about eight inches long and six inches wide. The Bible cost me $2.75 which I paid in small installments as I saved up my own money which I had earned."

The Herald-Tribune of New York, commenting on this statement said: "LATER DEAL IN MILLIONS CALLED SMALL COMPARED WITH BUYING BIBLE AT ELEVEN." William Lyon Phelps, of Yale, Dean of English literature, used to say: "No man is truly educated without a knowledge of the Bible" . . . Wanamaker and Phelps, men eminently successful in different departments of life, agree as to the value of the Bible.

"Back To School" is the slogan now, as thousands of youth turn their faces toward our educational institutions. May the course-of-the-highest wisdom in the Book of Books never be neglected by our Youth. If more people read the Bible, they too would have some good word to say as to its worth in the individual life, as the foundation of truest success. Here is the firmest foundation for highest building.

108th Mineola Fair Opens on Tuesday Exhibits to Be Staged in Tents Traditional of Early Days; Features

Mineola Fair's 108th Exhibition will open next Tuesday and continuing until the following Saturday night under the most auspicious conditions in fifty years. Returning to Colonial tradition, all of the exhibition departments will be in festive tents with a gala background, with the exception of the School, Ladies and Oage Bird Exhibits which will be housed under the grandstand, formerly occupied by the Poultry, now moving to a huge tent. This transmigration was made possible by utilizing more than twenty acres of the racetrack infield never before used for Fair purposes and more than atoning for the loss of less than two acres formerly occupied by the main exhibition buildings. The Rabbits, Goats and Marine Show are undisturbed and the enlargement of the Fair Grounds will afford a great deal more comfortable parking space. This year's grandstand attraction will be a double treat for adults and youngsters alike, consisting of Hunt's 3-Ring Circus, augmented by George J. Keller's wild animals, a complete show in themselves. Square and folk dancing will occupy the Dance Pavilion nightly, modern dancing being eliminated this year. The baby show—Wednesday and Thursday, dog obedience tests daily and nightly, fire works nightly except Saturday, and three sets of free "movie" shows will afford plenty of free-time entertainment, along with the ox-pulling and sheep dog herding contests.

The events program is as follows: Daily: Dog Obedience tests—12:30 and 7:30 p. m., Dance Pavilion. Daily: School Band Concerts and Baton Twirling, Dance Pavilion, 1:00 to 4:30 p. m. Wednesday and Thursday: Baby Show, West Lawn, Starting 1:00 p. m. Daily: Circus, Grandstand, 2:15 and 8:15 p. m. Nightly: Square and folk dancing, Dance Pavilion, 8:30. Amateur movies, Nightly, at dusk behind office. Free—Movies nightly, rear of Mother's Kitchen. Also rear of Dance Pavilion. Mid-Way Carnival: Day and Night, South of Duck Ponds. Free blood typing of visitors will highlight the health exhibit at the Fair. Six agencies will participate in the exhibit, which is being arranged by G. Donald Buckner for the Council of Health Organizations of Nassau County. The blood typing will be carried out by the Nassau County Medical Society in cooperation with the Inter-County blood bank. Technicians will be present at the exhibit from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily, and visitors will receive a card to carry with them at all times, identifying their blood type. Other exhibitors in the health tent, which will be located in the racetrack oval at the fair grounds, will be the Nassau County Cancer Committee, the Nassau County chapters of the American Red Cross and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, the Nassau-Suffolk Planned Parenthood Center and a mental hygiene exhibit by Creedmor State Hospital.

Leader Photog Visits Freeport Telephone Office

The Freeport office of the New York Telephone Co. is one of the busiest places in the village. Hundreds of operators and other employees are housed in the building, and hundreds of others drop into the place daily to pay bills and transact other business in the offices on the first floor. The various activities are pictured in the accompanying photographs on this page taken by THE LEADER photographer.

There are the central operators who are shown handling both incoming and outgoing calls, switchboards at which new comers are taught before they can take over before getting down to real business, and "trouble shooters," who handle complaints concerning breaks of service. And there is a rest room where each of the girls is allowed two periods of relaxation during the day.

William B. Billmeyer, district manager for Freeport, Baldwin, Wantagh and Hicksville, advised THE LEADER that 90,000 incoming and outgoing calls are handled daily in the Freeport structure, that 300 employees work out of the building, including operators, commercial representatives and repair crews. On the average 170 complaints of interruptions of service are received every day, and most of them are remedied during daylight hours.

A. A. A's Annual School Opening Poster.

Death of 2 F. H. S.

York University. He started teaching at the Onelida H. S., Onelida, N. Y., where his subjects were arithmetic and typewriting. After a year at Onelida, Mr. Parker accepted an appointment at the Babylon High School where he taught mathematical bookkeeping and commercial law for five years. Before coming to Freeport he taught bookkeeping and arithmetic at the Irvington (N. J.), High School. His services are to be conducted in the J. R. Allen Funeral Home in Endicott, N. Y.
Mrs. Hoerner and Mr. Parker were both members of the summer high school faculty and were returning from up-State after brief vacations, at their respective homes, to attend the faculty meeting marking the opening of the new school year. In their memory the meeting was opened with a moment of silence. Superintendent of Schools John W. Dodd, Principal Martin M. Mansperger and others paid tribute to their loyal service as members of the high school staff.
The two boarded a DC-3 plane of the Robinson Air Lines at the Onelida Airport, eight miles west of Ithaca, and it took off for the Newark, N. J. Airport at 3:10 p. m. It crashed in flames two minutes after the takeoff. Mrs. Hoerner's husband was killed 15 years ago in an automobile accident.

Guest on "Pause"

Frances Langford, whose romantic contralto has been one of the favorite voices in the country since she was discovered by Rudy Vallee in the 1930's, will sing with the Percy Faith Orchestra on "The Pause That Refreshes On the Air," Sunday, over CBS.

Three numbers chosen by Miss Langford for this appearance are Irving Berlin's "How Deep Is the Ocean," Johnny Mercer's "Come or Come Shine," and Cole Porter's "I've Got You Under My Skin."

In addition to playing his own composition, "Perpetual Motion," Percy Faith will lead the orchestra in his own arrangements of George Gershwin's "Mayday," Nora Morales' "Cry Negro," and Victor Young's "Beautiful Love."

Free Chest X-Rays

To Be Taken at Fair

The Nassau County Health Department has completed plans for its annual free chest x-ray survey to be held during the annual fair of the Queens-Nassau Agricultural Society opening Thursday at the Mineola Fair Grounds.

Cooperating with the county department will be the Nassau County Sanatorium and the Nassau County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Dr. Earle G. Brown, health commissioner, has appointed Dr. Thamar M. Stander, epidemiologist, to represent the county department at the exhibit. Dr. Stander is being assisted by Mrs. Hilda Brown Carr, health educator of the county department.

"We invite all persons over 15 years of age to avail themselves of these free chest x-ray examinations," said Dr. Brown. "All reports on the examination are confidential and further tests are offered to persons whose x-ray films show they need examination."

A portable x-ray machine for use during Fair week will be set up in a tent 24 by 24 feet. Muriel Ann, R.N., of the Nassau County Tuberculosis and Health Association, will furnish volunteers to handle clerical work and to serve as general assistants. Last year, 3,652 x-rays were taken during the four days the clinic was in operation. One day's program was cancelled because of inclement weather. In all cases where a deviation from the normal is found a report will be sent to the patient's family physician. In cases where the x-ray examinations show negative results a report to this effect will be sent to the persons x-rayed.

Freeport Anglers Anxiously Await Start of the U. S. Tuna Tournament

Four crews of the Freeport Tuna Club captained by Marsden B. Candler, are anxiously awaiting the opening of the eighth annual U. S. Atlantic Tuna Tournament which is to get under way at Montauk Point next Wednesday and continue through the following Friday.

All the entrants are expecting that the United States rod and reel record will be broken as the 24-teams prepare to gather at the Point.

The U. S. Atlantic is an east coast conference of amateur fishing and yachting clubs which any sport fishing club may join and enter a team. Starting as a challenge between the fishing clubs of Freeport and Brielle, N. J., in 1937, the tournament has grown in entry and interest to its present status as a major angling event, and is believed to be the largest team-competition fishing contest in the world. Eighty-two boats will be required to bear the anglers in the 1950 contest to the 'Rosie's Ledge' area of Block Island Sound, and tournament officials are relying on their 100-yards free way between competing boats to avert a marine traffic jam.

Two tuna rods are fished from a boat at a time, with anglers of a team replacing each other at rods as they change except when a fish is being played. Individual competitors range from novices who have never boated a tuna to internationally known big game anglers who are annual entrants in all major tuna contests from the Bahamas to Nova Scotia.

Points are awarded for Heaviest Individual Fish, Greatest Number of Fish and Greatest Aggregate Weight of Fish taken, and the team emerging with the highest point score gains possession for a year or permanently, of a long-list of trophies headed by the New Jersey Governor's Plaque, the Hensler Challenge Trophy, and Lockwood Memorial Trophy. Brielle Marlin and Tuna Club are defending champions.

Officers of the Tournament are: Walter F. O'Malley, Brooklyn attorney, and Dodger McE-President, as they change except when a fish is being played. Individual competitors range from novices who have never boated a tuna to internationally known big game anglers who are annual entrants in all major tuna contests from the Bahamas to Nova Scotia.

The Carlises

Yes... we've been promoted... The boss liked our COLYUME on Where To Dine so much that he asked us to keep on writing about things we see and do as we travel about. We've enjoyed our work on THE LEADER and this additional assignment should be fun... Into the "Big City" this past week-end to take in Broadway's latest hit, "THE LIVE WIRE"... this is strictly for laughs. It tells about a group of un-employed actors living together in a quonset hut on a vacant lot in the city... but un-employed actors if they are smart and have real ability don't have to live in quonset huts... they can move out to Long Island and open a legit theater where their work is appreciated... for example, if you haven't seen the show at the CENTER THEATRE in Rockville Centre you have missed a very good bet. Presently they are playing CANDIDA the George Bernard Shaw play and the acting is excellent... or drive out to Smithtown Branch where THE OLD TOWN THEATRE group have planned Broadway tryouts during the fall and winter season after a successful summer run... and there is the Rockville Centre Strand with good solid shows every week. If you like good theater, don't miss these local spots... The current floor show at the SOUTH SHORE TERRACE is one of the best... this popular spot has consistently been offering good entertainment, plus good food and pleasant surroundings with the result that if you don't make reservations early, especially on week-ends, you might find it plenty hard to locate a table... Another spot that has really "clicked" is the INDIA HOUSE out in Bellmore. The crowds there this past week-end prove once more that excellent food, faultlessly served will "ring the bell"... W continue to hear good reports about SULLIVAN'S and their delicious steaks... PICTURE PICK... For those who like "burly" and the like, watch for BEAUTY PARADE. This is a story of those bathing beauty contests featuring a bevy of scantily clad honeys on the undress parade across the screen. But beneath the Bikinis is the problem of home vs. careers with Ruth Warwick as the doting mother who gives up a glamorous career for marriage on July 28, the attack of the 2051 and the village take was only $17741.

Attendance at midgets fluctuated. The best night was on July 21, when 3,818 paid to see the races, while on July 28, the attendance dropped to 2,051 and the village take was only $17741.

More Nassau County men and women are needed as Red Cross volunteers at Northport Veterans Hospital, Mrs. Edward G. Richmond, chairman of the county ARC Volunteer Services, announced today.

At least 200 men and women are required in the program of the Gray Ladies and 40 men and women in the arts and skills services at the institution. Volunteers serve once a week at Northport.

Housewives, business and professional women from 25 to 55 can qualify as Gray Ladies. Miss Betty Gerlach, head of the Woodmere head of that service in Nassau, explained. At Northport they help in recreation programs, teach typing and dancing, work in libraries.

Red Cross arts and skills volunteers instruct Northport men in such crafts as ceramics, hooked rugs, leatherwork, painting, plastics, woodwork, jewelry making and copper work.

Volunteers for either service may apply at the Red Cross Chapter House, 254 Old Country Road, Mineola, or phone Garden City 7-1180. Those accepted will be given a brief orientation course at the hospital.

The appointment of Ralph G. Morris, Jr., of Bay Shore as executive director of the Nassau County Red Cross Chapter has been announced by Franklin S. Koons, chapter chairman.

Mr. Morris will succeed Lawson A. Odde in the office on Sept. 15. Mr. Odde resigned last May because of business plans, but continued on the job until Mr. Morris could take over. Mr. Morris has been associated with the national Red Cross organization since his release from the Navy, as a lieutenant, senior grade, in October, 1945. He served in the ARC veterans claims department and as assistant regional director of the North Atlantic and Eastern Red Cross areas until his appointment by the Nassau Chapter.

Stadium Receipts Drop Below 1949

$13,067 in July But 3 Months' Total Is $552 Under Year Ago

Receipts from events at the Municipal Stadium failed to keep up with the 1949 pace during July and as a result the income for May, June and July was $552.34 short of what it was a year ago. The total for the month was $13,067.13 and for three months, $33,559.39 as compared to $34,111.73 for the same period last year.

July receipts comprised $6,968.64 from nine stock car meets, $1,307.02 from four midget races, $3,968.97 from commissions from concessions of the New York Sport Service, $405 from television, $250 from L. & L. Distribution and $125 from baseball.

Stock car races drew 52,670 paid customers, midgets, 12,563 and baseball 544, for a total of 65,777.

The biggest night of stock car racing was July 22, when 6,662 paid to enter the stadium, netting the village $1,234.04. No races were postponed during the month, keeping up Promoter Kedenburg's phenomenal luck, but threatening weather kept the attendance down on several occasions.

Attendance at midgets fluctuated. The best night was on July 21, when 3,818 paid to see the races, while on July 28, the attendance dropped to 2,051 and the village take was only $17741.

Red Cross Volunteers Needed at Northport

More Nassau County men and women are needed as Red Cross volunteers at Northport Veterans Hospital, Mrs. Edward G. Richmond, chairman of the county ARC Volunteer Services, announced today.

At least 200 men and women are required in the program of the Gray Ladies and 40 men and women in the arts and skills services at the institution. Volunteers serve once a week at Northport.

Housewives, business and professional women from 25 to 55 can qualify as Gray Ladies. Miss Betty Gerlach, head of the Woodmere head of that service in Nassau, explained. At Northport they help in recreation programs, teach typing and dancing, work in libraries.

Red Cross arts and skills volunteers instruct Northport men in such crafts as ceramics, hooked rugs, leatherwork, painting, plastics, woodwork, jewelry making and copper work.

Volunteers for either service may apply at the Red Cross Chapter House, 254 Old Country Road, Mineola, or phone Garden City 7-1180. Those accepted will be given a brief orientation course at the hospital.

The appointment of Ralph G. Morris, Jr., of Bay Shore as executive director of the Nassau County Red Cross Chapter has been announced by Franklin S. Koons, chapter chairman.

Mr. Morris will succeed Lawson A. Odde in the office on Sept. 15. Mr. Odde resigned last May because of business plans, but continued on the job until Mr. Morris could take over. Mr. Morris has been associated with the national Red Cross organization since his release from the Navy, as a lieutenant, senior grade, in October, 1945. He served in the ARC veterans claims department and as assistant regional director of the North Atlantic and Eastern Red Cross areas until his appointment by the Nassau Chapter.
